

Agricultural and Extension Education Master of Science Degree Program Requirements

Teaching Option

The Master of Science Teaching option is an NCATE approved program designed for the student desiring teacher certification in the State of Mississippi.

Program Requirements

EPY 6313 Measurement and Evaluation
EPY 6033 Application of Learning Theories
EDF 8353 Principles of Curriculum Development
EDF 8363 Functions and Methods of Research
EDX 8173 Special Education in the Classroom
AIS 8303 Development of Youth Programs OR AIS 8503 Program Planning
AIS 8403 Directing Learning Experiences
AIS 6303 Applications of Information Technology
AIS 8606 Student Teaching in AISE

The program requires 30 semester hours beyond the Bachelor of Science degree. Students with a Bachelor of Science in agriculture majors other than Agricultural and Extension Education may need to complete undergraduate prerequisites. The number and types of prerequisites will vary depending on the courses taken in the undergraduate program.