

2020 Wes Ammon Outstanding New Advisor Awards Mississippi State University

OBJECTIVE

To recognize outstanding academic advising and to enhance visibility to the institutional commitment to quality advising.

STRATEGY

Mississippi State University will award annually two Wes Ammon Outstanding New Advisor Awards, one for faculty and one for staff. The awards will be presented in the spring semester and a cash award of $500 will be presented to each recipient. In addition, MSU will nominate the Wes Ammon Outstanding New Advisor Award winners for the National Academic Advising Association's Outstanding Advisor Awards.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

1. Faculty and staff who have demonstrated qualities associated with outstanding academic advising of undergraduate students and who have served as an academic advisor for a minimum of one year and no more than five (5) years are eligible.
2. Self nomination is permitted with appropriate supporting documentation.
2. Each nomination must include the endorsement of the faculty/staff member's Dean/Supervisor, Department Head or other relevant academic administrator.
3. The Selection Committee reserves the right to not grant any awards.

CRITERIA

The Selection Committee will evaluate nominations through documentation of effective advising qualities and practices which distinguish the nominee as an outstanding academic advisor. Such evidence may include, but is not necessarily limited to, the following:

- | | |
|---|---|
| *Availability to advisees, faculty, or staff | *Demonstration of a caring and helpful attitude toward advisees, faculty and staff |
| *Meeting advisees in informal settings | *Participation in and support of intrusive advising to build strong relationships with advisees |
| *Perception by colleagues of nominee's advising skills | *Use and dissemination of appropriate information sources |
| *Evidence of student success in the academic arena | *Recognition of nominee for outstanding advising or advising information |
| *Frequency of contact with advisees | *Appropriate referral activity |
| *Mastery of institutional regulations, policies, and procedures | *Participation & delivery of workshops & seminars on advising |
| *Monitoring of student progress toward academic & career goals | |
| *Strong interpersonal skills | |
| *Developmental advising vs. course scheduling | |

NOMINATION PROCEDURES

Nominations should contain adequate factual or descriptive material to enable the Selection Committee to ascertain the extent to which an individual meets the awards criteria listed above. The completed nomination package should include:

1. A summary of the nominee's qualifications, which is the principle component of the nomination package. The nominator should summarize the extent to which the nominee meets the award criteria, citing letters of support, data, or other materials illustrative of exemplary performance as an advisor.
2. Appendices: The appendices support the summary of nominee's qualifications. Appendices, in addition to the required support letter from the faculty/staff member's Dean/Supervisor, may include, but are not necessarily limited to:
 - representative materials developed by the nominee
 - letters of support from advisees, colleagues, and administrators (not to exceed 8)
3. Each nomination must include at least three letters of support from current or former students.
4. Nominee's resume, or vita, that clearly identifies "advisor" actions and activities including participation in developmental events. Please limit entries to material that pertains directly to academic advising, presenting relevant information from the nominee's overall resume/vita.
5. A personal statement on advising by the nominee
6. Interested Faculty and Staff must submit an application in PDF form to the Office of the Provost and Executive Vice President (email mfultz@provost.msstate.edu) by the deadline of 5:00 p.m. on Monday, March 23, 2020.
7. Winners of the Wes Ammon Outstanding New Advisor Award will submit a paper copy of the application suitable for display in the Mitchell Memorial Library.
8. Winners of the Wes Ammon Outstanding New Advisor Award will be requested to participate in an Advising Workshop facilitated by the University Academic Advising Council.

Examples of Developmental Advising: career planning, goal setting, extracurricular activities, preparation of students for national competitions, etc.